STAR PERSONA: THE MESSIAH

You have purpose. Something greater than your own life. You engage in the climate debate, the rainforest and current political issues. Little by little you lose sense of when you should have an opinion and which matters to stay out of... and when people get tired of your lectures.

You hear music more clearly. Your energy is spellbinding. You make other people into better musicians, lovers and human beings in general. Unfortunately, your quest for ecstasy is often perceived as abnormal, rude and invasive.

Your experience is intense. People are driven towards you. You attract sex, danger and still more extreme situations.

You radiate success and you attract all kinds of people. Everyone wants to be a part of your success. You are a born leader. But everybody wants a piece of you. You are starting to recognize disturbing patterns between people and their actions and motivations.

You are a natural leader. You have opinions and you take responsibility. Everybody wants something from you. Everything revolves around you.

YOUR REALITY -ADVANCED STAGE

You are an one of the important people in the western world. Every person you meet has a hidden agenda. You are starting to see patterns that seem highly unlikely and speculative to other people. Conspiracies. Assassinations. Fringe science. Hypnosis.
